

Messages from our twinning friends on the death of Queen Elizabeth II

The Brunoy Twinning Association joins me in expressing our sadness at the death of Elizabeth II.

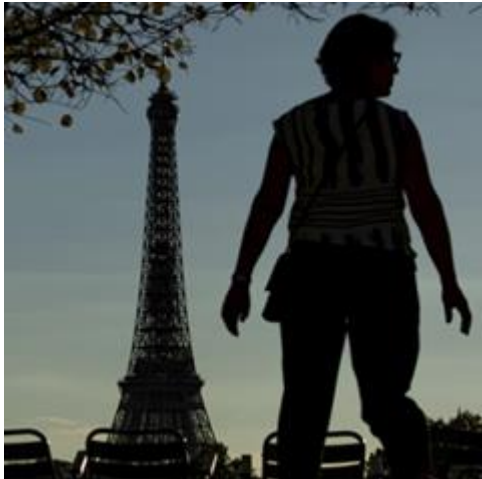

Our two countries are linked by our common History.

The Twinning Associations are bound by friendship that we continue to reinforce.

Our thoughts are with you.

Dominique Ryan

in France they switched off the lights on the Eiffel tower as a sign of mourning

I have had quite a few mails from individual members of Eschweiler directed to all of us, expressing condolences and support, as well as several sympathy messages from Wattrelos.

Janet Powell

whereas, in Germany they lit up the Brandenburg gate in Berlin in tribute.

